

Application for the position of Process worker

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am enthusiastically writing to apply the position of Process worker.

My name is Your Name . I am 24 years old and come from Hong Kong.

I am able to speak general English , Mandarin Chinese and fluent Cantonese as well. I am a person with passionate in life and trend to take challenge to learn something new . I love to be a great team member to cooperate with colleagues to get the work done quickly . I am able to work independent under pressure situation with quality and maintain positive attitude.

I have work experiences in different factory of packing position ,such as Strawberries, cherries , grapes, peach..etc. Those companies are process work on line production, as a experienced packer , my work ability is proven high efficiency and accuracy , I also can work independent under pressure with positive attitude.

I am immediately available and willing to cooperate the working shift, hope that I can get this opportunity to be a professional member in your team.

Enclosure is a resume with details of my personal particulars.
I appreciated if you could grant me an offer.

Thanks for your reading.

Best regards,
Your Name